Nowhere in the 2017 rulebook does the NFL mention the National Anthem. Pages 62 and 63 contain information on the enforcement of fouls. I'm too lazy to care about this, but the reference of these "rules" is from the Organizational/Player Handbook, not the actual officiating rule book; if even true.

Lets look at what the NFL rulebook says about the anthem ...

Players in the National Football League wear uniform numbers between 1 and 99, and no two players on a team may wear the same number. Rules exist which tie a player's number to a specific range of numbers for their primary position.Additionally, rules exist which limit who may handle the ball on offense: generally players who are designated as offensive lineman, who wear numbers 50-79, are ...
