Raymond; or, Life and Death by Sir Oliver Lodge - Free Ebook

In 1916, the physicist Oliver Lodge published Raymond or Life and Death, a best-selling account of messages transmitted through a medium that Lodge believed came from his son Raymond, a recent casualty of World War I.The narrative appealed to many readers who had lost loved ones during the war, although its apparently fanciful descriptions of the afterlife state made it a subject of controversy.

Raymond Lodge | Psi Encyclopedia

Raymond; or, Life and Death is a 1916 book written by Sir Oliver Lodge after the death of his son, Raymond, during World War I. The book details his attempts, along with his wife, to contact his son via a medium. Lodge was convinced that his son had actually communicated with him from the after life.
