Cable box is a Samsung model.#smt-h3362. The only button on it is off and on only. Time warner. All pic sizes are to wide on the ends only. Tried all combos. Can't get it to shrink down to the right size. I replaced all three boards just recently. I've tried all areas in menus mode,,nothing seems to work.

The Smart Cable Box not only makes your TV Smarter, but also seamlessly integrates your cable box into one box, with one remote. It works with most cable providers, so no change is necessary, and it can even save you money. All you need is a cable card provided by your cable company, which costs less than the standard cable box and remote rental.

Thanks, at least now, I know I should probably press the tech a little harder to find the problem. About a year ago I had them come out and completely redo the line in from the box outside to the modem and HD DVR. All there is between the cable coming in from the road and the cable box is one splitter.

I am having difficulty getting my new Samsung smt h3362 to respond to my ir extender, which has hitherto worked perfectly with a Harmony 650. It responds to the Harmony without the extender (i.e., when the cabinet doors are open), but somehow cannot read what the extender is putting out despite moving it to different locations.

As I said in my earlier post, I have an HDMI cable running from 8300HD box to an Onkyo AV system and then another HDMI cable from the Onkyo to my TV (Samsung). Nothing could be simpler. I will tell you this -- no matter what Cablevision tells you, they definitely know there is a problem with surround sound and these boxes.
