of Revelation is important for interpreting the book. If the book was written in the 90s, then the immediate background for the book is persecution of Christians under Domitian. But if the book was written before A.D. 70, then the persecution in the background of the book is Nero's backlash against Christians after the fire of Rome.

Most modern scholars believe that Revelation was written around AD 95. Obviously, if Revelation was written after AD 70, then the book could not be a prophecy of the destruction of Jerusalem. The arguments concerning the date of Revelation are very technical, on both sides. Nevertheless, there is one fairly obvious point in favor
