You can search for a specific title or browse by genre (books in the same genre are gathered together in bookshelves). It's a shame that fiction and non-fiction aren't separated, and you have to open a bookshelf before you can sort books by country, but those are fairly minor quibbles.

True Stories From A Lowcountry

Reggie Sharpe probably has more stories from his career in law enforcement than could fit in an encyclopaedia-length work, but his best must be in 'True Stories from a Lowcountry Cop'. At times both poignant and hilarious, it's more than just a police blotter kind of treatment, but lets the reader in on a privileged look into a side of the Charleston area that one normally would never see nor hear of.
