

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press congratulates Astral Press for the launch of the Journal of Astronomical History and Heritage, and draws your attention to the following recent and forthcoming titles on the history of Astronomy

Astronomies and Cultures of Medieval Europe

Stephen C. McCluskey

An overview of the astronomical practices that continued through the so-called 'Dark Ages'. Early medieval astronomies established a religious framework of sacred time and ritual calendar.

228 x 152 mm 375 pp. 4 tables 7 line diagrams

Fire in the Sky

Comets and Meteors, the Decisive Centuries, in British Art and Science

Roberta J.M. Olsen and Jay Pasachoff

Britain in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries produced a larger number and greater variety of representations of comets and meteors than anywhere else. This beautifully illustrated book examines the link between these works and the achievements of British science in the wake of Newton and Halley.
